Forecast For Wales
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 03 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Clear spells and heavy, blustery showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
Further heavy and possibly thundery showers will continue overnight, these always most frequent in the west and close to the coasts. Some sheltered eastern areas will become largely dry with good clear periods developing. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Monday:
Monday will be another day of sunny spells and scattered, locally heavy showers. However some more persistent, heavy rain and strong winds will spread into Pembrokeshire late in the day. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Heavy rain will give way to sunshine and showers on Tuesday. Windy, with coastal gales. Dry and bright on Wednesday. Often cloudy on Thursday but dry for most.
